Class Motto

Today We Follow; Tomorrow We Lead.

Far above the Shenandoah,
With its waters blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater
Beautiful to view.

As the mountains rise above us
Through the future years;
Blue and gold will lead us onward,
Safely without fears.

Lift you voices, sons and daughters,
Shout it to the sky,
Praise to thee, our Alma Mater!
Hail, to Stanley High!

OUR PRAYER

Father in heaven who lovest all,
Help us, Thy children, when we call;
That we may build from age to age,
An undefiled heritage.

Teach us to bear the yoke in youth
With steadfastness and careful truth,
Teach us to rule ourselves alway,
Controlled and clean by night and day.

Teach us to look in all our ends
On Thee for Judge and not our friends;
That we with Thee may walk uncowed
By fear or favor of the crowd.

In Memoriam

Mr. Charles Dovel, after a glorious and useful life of ninety years was called on April 9, 1954, to his Heavenly reward. On the following Sunday, he would have been ninety-one years old. During this long life, he went his joyous way through life--friendly and having many friends.

He was a faithful husband, a good provider for his family, a loving and beloved father and grandfather. Having taught school for twenty years, his great interest and delight was educating his own children and promoting good schools for other children.

In 1906, he married Miss Etta Lee Coffman of Page County. This marriage of nearly 49 years was blest with four boys and four girls, who were reared in a Christian home of love and understanding.

Mr. Dovel always took an active part in the Civic affairs of his community as long as he was able and in various other organizations where his abilities and wisdom contributed much to the welfare of his fellowman. He was a Christian gentleman, polite, gracious, polished, using the Bible as his guide through life.

So in this way, we wish to express our thankfulness for Mr. Dovel's fine life of service among us, for his consecrated and fine Christian character, that proved such a blessing to us and our community. We, the Seniors, of 1954-55 feel that we have lost a valued citizen, businessman, and friend. To his memory we leave this Annual.

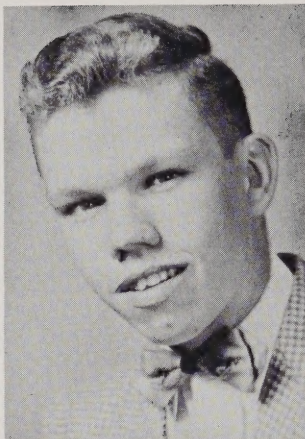

Foreword

In this ROUNDHEAD is the story of our happy years spent at Stanley High. As you slowly turn through this book, many cherished memories of basket-ball games, club activities, class parties, Junior-Senior plays, and other activities will be recalled. May we always remember these things, and especially our teachers who have so patiently stood beside us everyday of the year. We appreciate their efforts very much.

We, the staff, present this book to you in hopes that it will bring much joy to you in the years to come.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1955, take great pleasure in dedicating this edition of the ROUNDHEAD to our parents and teachers with the realization that our success has come from their wise guidance, genuine understanding, and many, many sacrifices through the years. May the dreams which they hold for our future be fulfilled in the roles we shall assume after graduation.

Class History

In September of 1951, feeling that we already knew all there was to know, we entered high school. Mr. Hott was our leader and had it not been for his guidance, we would never have found our way around. We, as "green" Freshmen were thirty in number until Mary Sisk chose matrimony and reduced our class to twenty-nine. Our class play, "Cabbages" and a delightful picnic at Shuler's Pool closed the many activities we enjoyed this year.

Feeling that perhaps we didn't know everything, twenty-nine of our number returned in 1952 to greet our new sponsor, Mr. Anderson. During the year we lost two more of our class--Dorothy Seal became a bride and Freddie Gray became a Seaman. In March we presented our smash comedy hit, "A Little Clodhopper" under the direction of Mr. Tischler.

As we grew less and less, twenty-seven of us returned to start our Junior year. With Mrs. Hundley as our guide, we solved the many problems arising from day to day. In the course of events, Peggy Housden became a Mrs. while Ronnie Dovel and Leonard Bell became Privates. This loss was supplemented by receiving George Gray, a returned P.O.W., into our family circle. On April 8, Miss Hotinger, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Hundley helped us make our play, "The Funny Brats" a big success. Our trip to Williamsburg with Mr. Woodward and the American History Class was loads of fun--not to mention all the excitement which followed when we returned to school and found our class rings all ready to be placed on our fingers. The Junior-Senior party at Shuler's Pool climaxed this wonderful year!

Then came our Senior year with Miss Hotinger and we agreed that instead of knowing everything, we were doubtful if we knew anything. Our number decreased rapidly when Naomi Buracker, Hazel Jenkins and Ralph Caton embarked on the sea of matrimony while David Gray marched off to help his Uncle Sam. Gloria Griffith, a former classmate, returned to share our Senior honors with us. The class worked heartily raising money for the biggest events of our school years--a trip to New York in May and the publication of the 1955 yearbook--"THE ROUNDHEAD".

At last the seeds of learning planted in our hearts and minds by the gardeners--our parents and teachers have begun to blossom and our garden of tomorrow looks promising to each graduate of our class.

Thus, the curtain closes on the History of the Senior Class of 1954-1955.

Last Will And Testament

We, the 1955 graduating class of Stanley High do declare the following to be our last Will and Testament signed this 6th day of June 1955.

To the Junior Class we bequeath Room 21 with its pleasant atmosphere, sparkling chairs and new paint job. We request the Juniors to fill it with dignity and do justice to our dear room.

To the Sophomores we bequeath all our textbooks, pencils, notebooks, and erasers.

To the Freshmen we bequeath our four (4) years of hard work. You will need it to reach the top, but do not give up. It is worth it!

To Mrs. Dinges we bequeath our thanks for the swell meals prepared, ready and waiting when needed. Also our thanks for the crackers, cookies, and ice water, secured off schedule. To you Mrs. Dinges--our many thanks.

To Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Dovel we bequeath our thanks for interrupting your schedule to use the telephone, get change, or just to chat when out of class.

To George Wilson we bequeath our thanks for keeping things clean when we forgot we were "big children."

To our teachers we bequeath our apologies for all the headaches we have caused. Also our thanks for patience, guidance, supervision, and teaching. Some, if not all, you taught will always be remembered.

To our parents we bequeath our love and thanks for giving us the opportunity for twelve years of education.

I, Joyce Aleshire bequeath my seat beside Charles Sours in his Ford to anyone fortunate enough to get it.

I, Velva Bailey bequeath my long distance telephone calls to anyone who can afford them. Better get a guy close home, girls; telephone calls are expensive.

I, John Baker bequeath my bashful ways for someone else to worry about.

I, Robert Brubaker bequeath my First Chair position in the Virginia All-State Concert Band to Jeanie Louderback.

I, Della Cabbage bequeath my quiet ways to Delores Blakemore.

I, Fleta Good bequeath my cunning ways to Sally Sabala. Use them on the teachers, Sally, they come in handy.

I, Frances Good bequeath my handwriting to John Bushey. Remember it when you write that "all important" letter, John.

I, Peggy Good bequeath my ability to flirt to Dixie Cave. Use it only when necessary, Dixie.

I, Gloria Griffith bequeath my flirty ways to my brother, Eddie--hoping you will accomplish and have as much fun as I did.

I, Shirley Housden bequeath my job as school bus driver to Jerry Amos. Let's have more driving and less talking, Jerry.

I, Juanita Kite bequeath my freckles to Sybil Weakley. Remember, Sybil, they are beauty spots.

I, Sylvia Louderback bequeath my ability to catch and hold the men in uniform to Patsy Comer. Come around sometime, Patsy, and I will give you the secret.

I, J. C. Martin bequeath my height to Kenny Louderback.

I, Doris Miller bequeath my typing eraser to Doris Ann Short. Use it Doris!

I, Charlotte Nauman bequeath my ability to write poetry to Barbara Lucas.

I, Ruby Nauman bequeath my artistic ability to Delores Seekford.

I, Bruce Painter bequeath my love for sports to anyone interested enough to play. Best wishes for future success.

I, Isabell Painter bequeath my nickname "Peepie" and my ability to chew chewing gum in class and not get caught to anyone who feels lucky.

I, J. C. Prince bequeath my basketball suit to Bobby Stoneberger. Wear it with pride, "Pork-chops."

I, Jean Redmond bequeath Jimmy Bates to no one without written consent from me.

I, Frances Short bequeath my red hair and hot temper to Peggy Blosser. Keep them under control, Peg.

I, Billy Shuler bequeath my reckless ways to Charles Dovel, who really doesn't need them.

I, Hazel Wilson bequeath my feelings for a certain Pine Grove boy to no one.
